Fifth Intergenerational Justice Award Ceremony in Berlin

For the fifth time, the FRFG awarded the Intergenerational Justice Prize funded by the Apfelbaum Foundation and endowed with €10,000.

On Wednesday, 23rd March, the FRFG hosted the award ceremony for the Intergenerational Justice Prize 2009/10 in Berlin. The laureates'™ proposals on the topic "Possibilities and Limits of Cooperative Problem-Solving in Party Democracies" provoked a lively debate with the audience. The ceremony also included a panel discussion with several members of the German Bundestag. They all emphasized the necessity of stronger task orientation within politics. They agreed, however, that the media and the public still misperceived the considerable improvement already achieved in this respect.Â

The laureates: Mathias KÄ¶nig, Wolfgang KÄ¶nig, Volker Best,

Wolfgang GrÄ¼ndinger (FRFG), Prof. Dr. Jun (Jury), Dr. Eike-Christian HornigÂ

The panelists:Â Dr. Philipp Murmann (MdB CDU/CSU), Florian Bernschneider (MdB FDP), Dr. Dr. JÄ¶rg Tremmel (Associate Professor, University of TÄ¼bingen), Kai Gehring (MdB BÄ¼ndnis90/Die GrÄ¼nen), Jutta Krellmann (MdB Die Linke)
