

Links

The Intergenerational Foundation (IF) has been established to promote fairness between generations. The organisation ensures that intergenerational issues are placed at the heart of public debate in the UK. Since its establishment, FRFG and IF have formed a cooperative partnership on many shared projects.

The Stiftung Apfelbaum - Partner für ein ZusammenWachsen von LebensWelten (in German only) is a long-term partner of FRFG. Stiftung Apfelbaum acts as patron for the FRFG's academic awards.

The World Future Council works towards achieving greater future justice in Europe. The Council's promotion of an Ombudsperson for Future Generations is supported by FRFG.

Research Group "Intergenerationally Just Policies" by the Eberhard-Karls-Universität Tübingen (Professor Joerg Tremmel)