FRFG-Membership

Members financially support the foundation, and allow it to function smoothly as an independent organization. Joining FRFG demonstrates your support of intergenerational justice and sustainability.Â

You have the right to:

* Receive the member's magazine "Intergenerational Justice Review" (in English or German).

To join FRFG, click here to fill out the online form. You can determine your contribution, but there is a minimal contribution of 25 US-Dollars or Euro (as you prefer) for those less than thirty years old, and 50 $/â,- for those above thirty. This fee covers the postage and various expenses accrued by individual membership. The membership is valid when the application form and contribution are received. Organizations are welcome to enjoy membership for 100 $/â,- yearly. We look forward to welcoming you to FRFG!

For non-European members especially, it is possible to send your contribution by check instead of wire transfer. In this case please print our membership form and send it (made out to FRFG) per post to:
